FALL, 1952

Published four times a year by the National Conference of Social Work, January, April, July and October.

Sent to all members in consideration of payment of three dollars as part of membership fees.

Entered as second-class matter at Columbus, Ohio, August 25, 1936, under the Act of August 24, 1912. Acceptance for mailing at special rate of postage provided for in section 1103. Act of October 3, 1917, Authorized August 25, 1926.

News of The International Conference of Social Work

Just about the time this issue of the Conference Bulletin is being distributed, some sixty Americans and Canadians will be leaving for India on the Study Tour sponsored by the U. S. Committee of the I.C.S.W. in connection with the Sixth International Conference being held in Madras in December. The U. S. Committee has been highly gratified at the extent of interest in this country in the Conference. It is anticipated that approximately one hundred Americans will be in attendance.

The U. S. working papers for the Madras Conference, which are the product of the efforts of groups of social workers in various parts of the country, are now available. Copies may be secured from the American Association of Social Workers, 1 Park Avenue, New York City, for 75c.

The reorganization of the U. S. Committee has now been practically completed. The first meeting was held in New York on October 2, and on January 1, 1953, the Secretariat of the Committee will be transferred from the National Conference to the National Social Welfare Assembly. George Rabinoff will serve as Executive Secretary of the new Committee, of which Lester Granger is Chairman.

Nominations Suggestions

The Steering Committee of the Nominations Committee will meet in Columbus early in 1953. Conference members are urged to send to the national office the names of individuals who they think are particularly qualified for membership on Conference committees or sections. As full information as can be secured should accompany such suggestions. Please bear in mind that an effort is being made to bring laymen and persons from related fields into more active participation in the Conference. Suggestions of qualified candidates in these areas will be particularly welcome.

CONFERENCE MEMBERS FOR THIRTY YEARS OR MORE

Listed below are the names of the individuals and agencies who have maintained continuous memberships in the National Conference of Social Work for thirty years and more. We who are concerned with carrying on the day-by-day business of the Conference feel that these continuing memberships reflect the vitality of the organization. There is evidence that their number and proportion are increasing. At the present time over one-half of the Conference members have held uninterrupted membership for five years or more, while about one out of six members has been a continuous member for twenty years or more.

The Conference and social work in general owe a debt of gratitude to the loyal members who have supported its work over the years. These members have demonstrated the need for the Conference, a need which can be met only by the continued participation and support of its members and of the social welfare community.

The Conference is happy to have an opportunity to give recognition to the individuals and agencies whose names appear below.

Papers on the Aging

When Conference members were polled on the kinds of publications they wanted, they indicated overwhelmingly that low-cost volumes of papers for a special group in the field or for a group concerned with a special problem were their first choices.

Available soon will be the first publication in category two—

SELECTED PAPERS ON THE AGING

Price: 75c to N.C.S.W. members; $1.00 to others.

The contents are papers presented at the 1952 Annual Meeting in Chicago—

Introduction by Lucia B. Bing and Margaret W. Wagner; Individualizing the Aged by Marc H. Hollender, M.D.; Helping the Older Adult to Keep Related to the Mainstream of Community Life by Jerome Kaplan; Using the Unique Contribution of Later Maturity for the Wellbeing of the Community by Georgene E. Bowen; The Friendly Visitors to the Aged Program by Mary A. Young; New Developments in Services for the Aged—The Medical Program in a Home for the Aged by Edward Schultz; Family Care for Older Persons by Louise Magary; Milwaukee's Recreation Program for the Aging by Donald B. Dyer.

KNOW YOUR CONFERENCE

Conference members have frequently expressed interest in knowing more about the officers of the organization. Consequently, we are publishing in this issue of the Bulletin the pictures and brief biographical sketches of the President, Vice-Presidents and Secretary.

Space permitting, we will try in future issues to present some of the other individuals who are important in the leadership of the Conference.

EDUARD C. LINDEMAN

CHARLES I. SCHOTTLAND

JOHN J. CORSON

MRS. VICTOR SHAW

PHILIP SCHIFF

Eduard C. Lindeman, President, was Professor of Social Philosophy at the New York School of Social Work from 1924 to 1950, when he retired. He is Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the National Child Labor Committee, in addition to serving on the boards of a number of other organizations. He is the author of many books, including "The Community", "The Meaning of Adult Education", "Social Education" and "Social Discovery". In 1949 Mr. Lindeman was Visiting Professor at the University of Delhi in India.

Charles I. Schottland, First Vice-President, is Director of the California State Department of Social Welfare. Prior to assuming that position he held a number of positions in the social work field. During World War II he was chief of the Displaced Persons Branch of the Army and then Executive Director of UNRRA in Germany.

Mrs. Victor Shaw, Third Vice-President, has been chairman of the National Advisory Committee on Citizen Participation of CCC and the National Social Welfare Assembly. She has also served as President of the West Virginia State Conference of Social Work and now serves on the board. Other organizations in which she has been active include the West Virginia Merit System, the West Virginia League of Women Voters, the West Virginia Committee on the White House Conference, and the Association of Junior Leagues of America.

John J. Corson, Second Vice-President, is manager of the Washington office of McKinsey & Company, management consultants. Prior to that he was for six years Director of Circulation and Research of the Washington Post. His government positions include Assistant Executive Director of the Social Security Board, Director of the Bureau of Old Age and Survivors Insurance and Director of the U.S. Employment Service.

Philip Schiff, Secretary, has for the past ten years been national representative of the National Jewish Welfare Board in Washington. Earlier he was Executive Director of Madison House in New York City and of the New Orleans YM-YWHA. He has been active in many organizations and has served as chairman of the Washington chapter of A.A.S.W. and as chairman of the National Public Social Policies Committee of A.A.S.W.
